Notes in the Margin

An Occasional Newsletter of Turner Public Library

We need your bright ideas!

Can you help us envision the future of TPL?

Please send us your suggestions for how we can better meet the needs of the community in the decade to come.

- ❖ What do you want from your community library?
- ❖ What programming and events do you look forward to at the library?
- ❖ How can we make it easier for you to engage with us?

Our little library serves over 2,200 households and MSAD52! We need your help as we grow our circulations! Your support is very important! Please consider how you can be a part of our growth!!

We want to hear from you!

L.L. Bean Snowshoes at TPL!

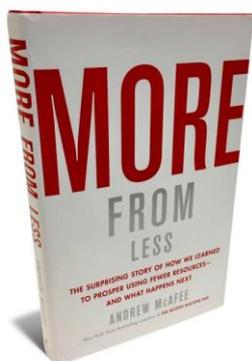

If you've been thinking of trying snowshoeing, we've got six pairs of new snowshoes courtesy of L.L. Bean for you to check out! Winter Walkers come in various sizes from 16 inches to 30 inches, so both kids and adults can give it a try! Optimal snowshoeing weather is here! Many thanks to the fine folks at L.L. Bean who donated these fun snowshoes last summer so we'd be ready now! Don't know what size to choose? Try this link to Snowshoe Magazine!

“More From Less” is a well-written and convincing book. If it makes a few of us more optimistic, it will also be remembered as an important one.

-Calum Chase, author of Surviving AI, The Economic Singularity, and the philosophical science fiction novel Pandora's Brain.

The Westing Game

By Ellen Raskin

Reviewed by Esther Mahar, age 12

The Westing Game is about sixteen different kinds of people. There is a birdwatcher, an inventor, a doctor, a bomber, and more. They all are supposed heirs to a man named Samuel W. Westing. When he dies, they become part of a mysterious game. They will have to work together to solve the puzzle. But, only one will truly win.

This book has countless twists and turns, misunderstandings and suspense. The Westing Game is a truly intriguing book.
